

I strongly believe that a diverse media industry is very important to a healthy democracy. Please do not increase concentration of ownership, but instead strive to ensure a variety of sources of information and news.

Respectfully,

John Busco